NEWS AWARDED CONTRACT FOR PUBLISHING CHARTER

The city council held an adjourned session last evening, all being present except Conuciiman Geriach.

It was a short session, the principal matter to be disposed of being the letting of the contract for the official printing of the new city charter in a newspaper, as required by law. When this matter came up, City Attorney Hall advised the council that the final decree had not yet arrived from the Superior Court, but that he had been in communicaton with the attorneys on all sides, and was of the opinion that it was perfectly proper for the council to proceed and let the contract for printing the charter in any paper it should desire to.

Councilman Lane, after being so informed by the city attorney, moved that the contract be awarded to the Richmond Daily News at the same price mentioned in its bids for all of the city printing.

There was considerable discussion pro and con among the councilmen and the city attorney relative to the legal status of the News and the opinion handed down by the Superior Court. Attorney Hall advised them that he was now satisfied as to the legality of the News as a newspaper of genreaal circulation as set forth in the code, and also that the Record-Herald was no longer the official paper of the city, for the reason that its contract expired December 31, 1916.

Councilman Osborn and others spoke in favor of the News, and upon the vote being taken it was found to be unanimous, with the exception of Councilman Penry, who seemed not yet satisfied as to the legality part of it.

It was therefore ordered that the News publish the new city charter for the first time in its issue of January 30, and upon request of Editor Hulaniski was given the privilege by special resolution to print the charter in 8point type and render bill for same upon a 6-point basis. This was done to save time and because the News already had the matter set up in 8-point for the pamphlet which it is printing for the city.

Attorney C. D. Horner, representing the Record-Herald, warned the council that letting the contract to the News would be in contempt of court, and after the contract had been let he intimated that it looked like a frame-up to invalidate the charter.

For this insinuation Mr. Horner was called down by Councilman Long good and proper. Mr. Long resented any intimation that the council was engaged in any such business, and that the sole object was to save money to the taxpayers by having the printing done where it could be done the cheapest.

A thirty-day extension of time was granted the Ritchie Company upon recommendation of Supt. of Streets Chapman on their contract for sewer work on the Richmond Center tract. S. C. Rogers was granted a like extension.

The city engineer asked to have the salary of Edward Hoffman of his office raised to $100 a month.

S. P. COMPANY GIVES BONUS.

The Southern Pacific Company during the past few days has been distributing to its employes all over its system 5 per cent of the salary of those who have been in the employ of the company for two years. The boat hands who struck last year did not share in the distributions, however. In July they will get another 5 per cent extra.

NOW A FOG BELL.

The bell which used to call the children to the old Standard avenue grammar school hos been sold to the Richmond-San Rafael ferry to be installed as a fog bell at the company's San Quentin dock. It was sought for its deep tone.

BENEFIT ENTERTAINMENT.

The Parent Teachers' Association is arranging for a benefit entertainment at Lincoln school February 21, the proceeds to be given to the Social Service Bureau. Mrs. I. B. March, president of the association, is chairman of the arrangements committee. Tickets will be 25 cents each.

MRS. GEORGE ENTERTAINED.

Mrs. A. M. George entertained the Young Married Women's Club at her home. 710 Bissell avenue, yesterday afternoon. A delicious repast was served, and the afternoon was most pleasantly spent. Mrs. George proved a charming hostess, and the 28 present found the afternoon most enjoyable.

JOHN ROTH GIVES SOME INTERESTING FIGURES

"To back the statements of O. R. Ludewig, in the Daily News of the 24th, that there was seldom more than two feet of water in the People's Water Company's reservoir on the hill," said Judge John Roth, "I will say that I have walked up and down Washington avenue almost daily for ten years. The reservoir has been in plain sight and I have watched the target indicating the depth of the water, and with the exception of the two or three weeks preceding each of the water bond elections, the target has hovered near the low water mark. Even this morning (January 24th) I saw the target standing at the two foot mark.

"I have always been accorded fairness and courtesy by the local agents of the water company and have never heard of any discourtesy, and I do not for a moment blame them for the policy of the company they are paid to serve; yet the fact remains that we have been robbed by the water monopoly, which is controlled by the People's Water Company, of at least 50 per cent of the money it compells us to pay. This fact is plainly shown by the economies and low rates of every municipally owned water company in the state.

"Further than that we have been sleeping over a volcano. Due to the insufficient volume and the lack of pressure, our young city is liable to be destroyed by fire at any time. The whole hillside is absolutely unprotected. There the water mains are absolutely insufficient, and by no means cover the district. For this lack of protection and the poor water that reaches all the city we pay two prices.

"If there be, as statistics show, 4,000,000 gallons of water daily consumed in the district, and the different companies tax us 50 per cent more than they should, as the municipal plants show, then the district is being robbed to the extent of $182,500 annually.

"We pay 35 cents per 1000 gallons. At 25 cents per 1000 gallons, to make the figure conservative, it makes $1000 per day that we pay above that which we should, or $365,000 per year.

"Can anyone wonder why the People's Water Company went to the trouble and expense of hiring women to circulate petitions at 10 cents per name to dissolve our water district?

"Will the people of this district, on next Tuesday, cast their votes to perpetuate such robbery? If you wish to strengthen the water company and throw away the only means of defending yourself against such robbery and neglect, then vote in the affirmative next Tuesday. If you wish better water and lower rates and wish to retain your means of defense, vote Against the destruction of the water district."

FORBES AGAINST DISSOLUTION.

"It would be a vital mistake for the people of Richmond to destroy their water district at the election next Tuesday," says A. S. Forbes, secretary of the Merchants' Association.

"Personal antagonism has no place in this fight. It is a question of the ultimate ownership of the water system, and to destroy the district is a step backward. My vote will be 'Against' the dissolution."

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS FROM VARIOUS WORLD POINTS

MANCHESTER, Eng., Jan. 25.—The labor party's conference today overwhelmingly rejected a resolution in favor of immediate peace proposals to end the war.

The meeting also rejected, by a 2 to 1 vote, the proposal for an international labor conference at the war's end.

The convention adopted resolutions designed to force the rich to bear more of the burdens of the war.

The delegates urged adoption of an equitable system of conscription of the accumulated wealth forthwith, including a tax on large incomes of at least 75 per cent and also direct taxes on land values.

RAIDER IDENTIFIED.

BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 25.—Dispatches from Montevideo today declared on reliable information that the German raider has been identified as the former Hamburg-South American liner Cap Ortegal. The same source was authority for the statement that the Cap Ortegal is known to have transformed two of her prizes into auxiliary raiders.

How identification of the raider was made did not appear in the Montevideo dispatches. The Cap Ortegal was formerly engaged in European trade between Buenos Aires and Hamburg. It is known she was in Hamburg at the time of the outbreak of the war.

EARTHQUAKE KILLS FIFTY.

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 25.—Fifty persons were killed and 300 injured by a serious earthquake which shook the island of Bali, a Dutch possession.

Dispatches here today telling of the quake declared thousands of houses, factories and temples were destroyed.

The volcano of Cuning Agong, about 10,500 feet in height, is located on the island of Bali. The island is 75 miles long and 40 miles wide.

TRADES COUNCIL ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The Building Trades Council held a very interesting session last night at the Labor Temple and elected a new set of officers and committees.

After the election of officers and the transaction of routine business the council was addressed by Editor Hulaniski of the News upon the pending water election and urged by him to vote against corporation rule and for municipal ownership.

The council did not take official action upon the matter, but that the editor's talk was well received was evidenced by the frequent and hearty applause accorded him. He suggsted among other things that organized labor have a few candidates of its own upon the 4th of March, when it came to the election of a new board of water commissioners.

The officers elected to preside over the council are all well known and prominent in labor circles, and men who reflect credit upon their locals as well as upon the central body. These new officers and committees are as follows

President, J. A. Schaffer; vice president, Bert Heath; rec. secretary, J. O. Dahl; financial secretary treasurer, R. McLennon; sargent at arms, J. P. Sandberg; business agent, F. W. Heckman. Organization committee—O. J. Dahl, F. Champion, G. Ingram. Law and legislative committee—P. Galligan, N. Hansen, A. E. Danielson, C. P. Smith and Wm. Willis. Trustees—J. B. Thornton, O. J. Dahl, J. Hannish. Delegates to Central Labor Council—F. W. Heckman, Wm. Pennington and Wm. Willis.

ALPHA LODGE SOCIAL.

A very delightful social was held by Alpha lodge of Masons at Bank hall last night. Cards were indulged in, and the Masons and their invited friends passed the evening most enjoyably. There was a large attendance of Eastern Star members. The committee: H. D. Chapman, W. F. Petillion, R. F. Petillion and D. W. Baker.

REWARD.

The Daily News will pay a reward of $5 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone stealing this paper from subscribers.

SO THE PEOPLE SHALL KNOW.

The News has been asked by a number of citizens to explain several matters pertaining to the pending water controversy, and will do so, simply and plainly:

If the local water district be saved next Tuesday, and a majority of the people vote against disincorporation, and later on the people should vote to put in their own water supply, NO CITY BONDS WILL BE ISSUED. The $2,600,000 bonds will be water district bonds, and not city bonds.

The district takes in Richmond, Giant, Stege, Rust and San Pablo, and adjacent territory, and it was because it was desired to bond the district, instead of the city alone, thus spreading it over a larger territory and not interfering with the city's lawful bonding rights, that the district was formed.

• • • •

The expense already incurred by the district to date is paid and over with, but if the district be disincorporated next Tuesday, and the people should at any future time desire to put in their own water supply, either through the city council or by forming a new district, ALL THAT EXPENSE WOULD HAVE TO BE INCURRED ALL OVER AGAIN, and, furthermore—

All the valuable Marin contracts and options now owned by our present water district would automatically expire at once, and it would cost half a million dollars more to ever obtain them again.

This is a fact well known to the engineers and all others who have investigated. The editor of the News knows by personal investigation that this is a positive fact.

So, if the district is disincorporated at this election Tuesday, THE PEOPLE LOSE HALF A MILLION DOLLARS INSTANTLY!

• • • •

Half the expense already incurred is borne by the manufactories within the district, and the other half, distributed around among the individual taxpayers, amounts to about 50 cents apiece. Then why all this loud scream about that 50 cents? To listen to some of you, one would think that instead of paying 50 cents toward a good cause, you were being murdered.

• • • •

If the people put in their own water supply, it is owned by the people, and not by a corporation, and the enormous profits of the corporation is saved to the people, and OUR WATER RATES DROP AT LEAST ONE-HALF!

• • • •

There will be no raise in taxation and NO TAXES TO PAY. The amount paid for the water by consumers is more than enough to cover everything except first cost, and that is taken care of amply by the sale of the bonds.

• • • •

The project includes taking over the supply and system of the People's Water Company by condemnation proceedings, as provided by law, under which only a fair and just valuation can be made.

• • • •

A very large percentage of the district bond money must be expended for local labor, giving plenty of work for a long period, at good wages to our citizens who may want it.

• • • •

Five of the seven present district commissioners retire March 4, at which time five new men will be elected. Select your own five men.

• • • •

At this time there is only one issue before the voters, and that is: "Shall the water district be disincorporated."

• • • •

The judgment of the News, after very careful investigation and study of all the facts, is that to disincorporate our local water district will be a disastrous step backward and a public calamity.

There are many people who speak of segregated vice as a "necessary evil." No evil is necessary. Clean thinking produces clean living. As sanitation wipes out many plague spots, so sanitary minds, so to speak, can do away with pest holes of iniquity. Ofttimes people are prejudiced against printed publicity of a known disgrace. Methods are criticized and discredited. The press is the greatest public factor in a campaign of this kind, and we are in accord with this sanitization of morals on the GREED WHITE (!) WAY, now in progress in our neighboring municipality.

On an S. P. passenger train recently was a passenger that did not get on at any station. It weighed nine pounds.

In our mad scramble for wealth we have drifted away from the standard of our fathers.

In handling out your justice, don't leave out the mercy.

CONVENIENCE STATION.

The new public convenience station being erected for the city by the Cutting interests is assuming shape and will be not only a convenience, but an ornament to the plaza adjacent to the Washington school on the west side of the city. It is a wooden structure, veneered with brick, with seats and benches, and lavatories for men and women. Grass and flowers will be planted around it.

Architect J. B. Ogborn drew the plans for the building and donated them to the city.

Mrs. Eva Skillen, sister of Mrs. Frank Jenks, passed away in Chicago on the 19th.

A NEW ONE ON HENRY.

Ye scribe was off his regular job for a while yesterday. He told Henry that he brought a new invention from the East, which would revolutionize his soda business. Naturally his word was doubted. Yesterday he proved it. He demonstrated to Messrs. Henry, Hertzinger, Neill, Garfinkle and others that he could freeze instantly any liquid served at the fountain. It was a revelation to the onlookers, and after tasting, all pronounced it a perfect success.

A little freezer congeals the liquid on a drum and it is removed by a scoop which presses against it. The drum contains common salt and ice and remains cold from two to seven hours.

Convince yourself and ask for your favorite beverage in congealed form at the Kozy.

GET ON YOUR REGALIA.

CHAPTER II.

Vive la France.

"THE uncle of America has come to a confusion of the sex between Pierre and me from a careless memory and the writing of my hand, which is of a great boldness, but not to be easily read," I explained as I read the letter aloud to Pierre and Nannette.

It took me just one hour by the clock, sitting there on the pile of steamer wraps with the small Pierre in the hollow of my arm, to explain and translate the sense of that letter to old Nannette, and I feel sure she would have been sitting upon that spot yet, immovable, rather than let me depart from her if I had not put all of my time and force upon the picturing to her of a Pierre who could come down with her later to me in a condition to run through the gardens of Twin Oaks, which was the home of his American ancestors. With that vision constantly before her she let the porter and me insert her into a taxicab and extract her at the door of the small private hospital of the good Dr. Burns, who was to perform the miracle for the back and hip of small and radiant Pierre.

"But what is it that I do to permit the jeune fille of my beloved mistress to depart into this city of wicked savages not attended by me? I cannot. Do not demand it!" were the words with which I left her arguing with that very sympathetic and sensible doctor of America. He had not noticed a confusion of sex was between Pierre and me, and he had sent out the check of my wicked uncle and procured the American money for me. Also he had given me a few directions that he appeared to think of a great sufficiency and had ordered a taxi to be in readiness for me.

"Nonsense, nurse," he said to Nannette brusquely, but not with unkindness, when I had translated to him Nannette's weeping protests. "A great strapping girl like that can get down to the Harpeth valley all right by herself. Nobody's going to eat her up, and from the size of the biceps I detect under that chiffon I think she could give a good account of herself if anybody tried. How like you are to what Henry was at your age, child. God bless you! I'd go to the station with you, but I've a patient all prepared for an operation. Shall I send a nurse with you?"

"No, please, good doctor, and good-by," I said, with a great haste, as I hurriedly embraced both Nannette and the small Pierre and departed down the broad steps into the taxi with the open door.

"Your train may not leave for hours, but you can get your baggage together. Goodby," said that good doctor as he shut the door and returned to his pursuit of making human beings either whole or dead.

"And now, Roberta Carruthers, no longer Marquise of Grez and Bye, you are in your America, and let's see you do some hustling."

And while that very swift taxi conveyed me to the large station that is as beautiful as a cathedral I did some what I name "tall thinking." What would be the result of my womanly arrival in that state of Harpeth of my wicked uncle? Would he be forced to murder me as his letter had said? And if in his anger over the mistake he had made from my letter, written in that very bold and difficult handwriting, he should turn from me and the good Nannette and Pierre as well, what would I then do? All must be enacted that a cure for Pierre be obtained. With great energy I had been thinking, but I did not know what it was that I should do to prevent his anger when I arrived to him as a woman until suddenly the good Dr Burns' kindness in marking the resembalnce of me to my father in his extreme youth made an entry into my brain and was received with the greatest welcome by the daredevil who there resides.

"Very well, Robert Carruthers, who is no longer the beautiful Marquise of Grez and Bye, you will be that husky nephew to your wicked uncle in the state of Harpeth whom he needs in his business.' What is that you lack of a man's estate save the clothes, which you have money in your pockets to obtain after you have purchased the ticket upon the railway train?"

A decision had been made, and action upon it had begun in less than a half hour after the purchase of the ticket for the state of Harpeth had been accomplished.

(To be continued.)

With but little deviation from the popular American game, baseball is played in Russia, but there it is known as lutka.

NOVEL PRODUCTION AT RICHMOND THEATER

Many types and kinds of Oriental dancing are performed by the native dancing women in Lenore Ulrich's new Morosco-Paramount photoplay, "The Road to Love."

The scenes of the Fantasia, which play so important and critical a part of this love story, are truly Oriental.

But more beautiful than any of the native beauties, Lenore Ulrich in the gauze and spangles of the celebrated and much sought Hafsa, stages the premiere dance of the evening, a performance that has a very potent influence on Hafsa's adventurous career. It is a career, by the way, that is taken from life and makes a fascinating and highly romantic photoplay that is the attraction at the Richmond theater this week.

The reality of Morosco-Paramount photoplays never has been more successfully maintained than in the story of the Algerian desert, "The Road to Love," at the Richmond theater today and tomorrow, with Lenore Ulrich as the star.

Gowns, arms, rugs, costumes and all the paraphernalia of Algerian life were secured from a wealthy Algerian, who takes part in this picture play. This native supplied the Algerian dancers, musicians, camel drivers and all the strange equipment of these people. The sight of these desert dwellers at their accustomed tasks creates an air of genuineness that adds an Oriental flavor to this strongly attractive love story of the Near East.

NAY, NAY, PAULINE, THERE'S NOTHING DOING

Information has been received from the Oakland police to the effect that the woman known as Madam Pauline, the procuress, now under arrest or pandering, intended to open a roadhouse in Contra Costa county. The woman is charged with being the agent of a white slave gang.

The woman, who is all that is vile, is well known to the police of several big cities on the coast.

TO BUILD HOUSES.

The co-partnership formed by Ernest Kueffer and Charles Bacon is primarily for the purpose of providing a great want—new houses. There are dozens of lot owners here who would be glad to have a house occupy their property. but who have not the ready money. Realising that there is a big demand here for dwellings, Kueffer and Bacon have organized a company fully prepared to finance the construction of the houses. In this way a house on a heretofore unoccupied lot provides either a home for the owner, or gives him some rentable property that soon pays for itself under the Kueffer and Bacon plan. The firm of Hayes and Kueffer, ,realty operators, continues in existence, conducting a realty business.

A SAD DEATH.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Frymire passed away on Wednesday at the Children's Hospital in San Francisco, after a long illness. The bereaved parents spared no expense to save the life of their beloved little one. The funeral will be held this morning from the family residence, Rev. Linder officiating.

VARIATIONS

BY WILL DAVIS

President Wilson says he is willing to try a practical demonstration of whether one can live on 25 cents a day for food, provided his wife will agree to it. Such trivial matters as a world peace can wait; this food problem is of real importance.

John Barleycorn is due to get an awful jolt from the present Legislature. There is apparently no desire to make California absolutely dry, but there is a determination to lessen the consumption of strong drink, and the wine interests are lining up against John B. Some day maybe the saloon men will get it through their heads that if they expect to stay in business in California they will have to meet the people half way in the interests of reform. The harder the saloon interests fight this thing, the worse they will get licked.

William Jennings Bryan says he doesn't like Wilson's world peace plan. Bill can always be counted upon to justify expectations of his stand upon anything. Nobody thought he would like it. It is just barely possible that Mr. Wilson doesn't give a whoop.

NEWS FROM THE POINT

RAMBLINGS ON THE EAST SIDE.

Yes, we know it was cold the first days of last week, and coal has been scarce, but then think of the past few days; how wonderful!

Do you realize what cold and lack of coal means in a big city like Chicago? When the writer was there last winter, the charity clubs were giving away tickets for coal to the extreme poor. Priest, rabbi, teachers and all to whom the pressing need were evident were supplied with tickets and even then deaths occurred every day from freezing. You didn't hear of anyone freezing to death in Richmond. And this leads up to the observations out on the east side.

Intensified farming is becoming more or less prevalent, with the housewife, whose passion for flowers must be gratified; and to the family with a little plot of ground much can be accomplished in supplying the needs for green stuff to combat the H. C. L. Onions! Wow! How we love them! Boiled, fried or raw, or in pickle. Ever try them friend with apples? I saw fine beds of them out near San Pablo; and lettuce, etc., etc.

Why not have a little home with a garden? Even a 2x4. where you can go out and jerk a bunch of radishes from the ground. (You know we gave away a lot of seeds last week, vegetable as well as flower, and some are going to plant them.) There is a lot of room out east and a fine place to live. How many people know of the big mushroom industry out that way, and the large greenhouses, which show the land is fertile.

Get the communal spirit. Boost your neighborhood. If you have any big social doings let us know. We are for Richmond, north, east, south and west. Take the News and read the Boosts. There are enough persons to carry knocks, which we decline to print.

WHERE SHALL WE GO? WOMEN ASK

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—Three hundred women of the underworld at noon today marched in a body to the Central Methodist church and hurled at Rev. Paul Smith, the pastor, this question: "What will the persons who are trying to close the 'uptown tenderloin' in San Francisco do to obtain employment for the women and girls who will be deprived of a means of livelihood as a result of the crusade?"

Rev. Mr. Smith has been the leader of the vice crusade now being conducted here.

DRAMATIC SCENE.

A dramatic scene was staged in the church when the women filed in and Mrs. Rose Gambel pleaded the cause of the night revelers.

For an hour the minister stood in his own church and submitted to a rapid fire of questions from the woman in bedraggled finery, after listening to Mrs. Gambel's pathetic plea.

"This is the saddest day of my life," said he. "You have asked me the question that has been asked since the world began and is still unanswered."

Two-thirds of the women declared they were daughters of poor families who could not exist on "starvation wages," the majority proclaimed themselves native daughters and most were mothers.

BURGLARY LAST NIGHT.

Burglars entered the home of a Mr. Chapman, living opposite the Congregational church. last night, and secured a gold watch worth $40 and a breast pin worth $20. Nobody was home at the time.

GOOD NEWS.

Mrs. H. J. Beyer, the wife of the well known stationer, who has been in Pasadena for her health for the past three weeks, is rapidly recovering and hopes to be back in Richmond about the first of April. We trust to hear good reports from time to time.

ELKS DANCE SATURDAY NIGHT.

The grand ball which the Elks have scheduled for Saturday night at East Shore Park, will be one of the season's great events. Captain W. A. Vickery has been drilling the team for dress parade as a feature of the ball.

CHURCH RECEPTION.

A reception was tendered last evening at the Congregational church to three new members—Mrs. Emma Howe and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Clark. During the evening Mrs. Raymond C. Brooks of Oakland read a number of poems, assisted by Mrs. Arnold. A repast was served and the affair was a most pleasant one.

RED MEN INITIATION.

The Oneta Tribe of Red Men will initiate a class of 100 palefaces into the mysteries of the order tomorrow night at Pythian Castle, when several of the big chiefs of the reservation will be present. Past Great Sachem of Oregon, Judge C. S. Hannum, will preside at the banquet as toastmaster.

Prominent among those who will be initiated are Charles Yonce, R. H. Curry, Supervisor Zeb Knott, C. F. Donnelly, W. L. Lane and A. C. Lang. The committee in charge of the entertaining features of the event includes D. J. Esola, J. F. Church and R. P. Smyth. The committee for the banquet is comprised of W. F. Patton, J. H. Rich, C. Williams, T. Kreuzer and M. Campbell.

KINDLY NOTE THIS.

Read the fish adv. of the Richmond Fruit and Produce Market, and note the prices. Everybody should eat fish once a week at least. The health demands it. Last week we made a mistake in the adv., announcing a low price on shrimps. It should have been herring. The store was flooded with shrimp orders, for the price was awful low. It wasn't their fault; it was ours. But it shows that people read the advs. in the News, anyhow.

LYNCOE.

Pulse Bros. are showing some Lyncoe, a Chinese novelty plant. The seed looks like a small pair of horns. Put into a glass of water. it sends forth pretty blossoms in a couple of weeks. They are also selling fern balls, that require only a little water to make pretty house decorations.

A RARE CHANCE.

H. B. Wood of the Civic Center garage, near the city hall, offers some rare bargains in used autos, as will be seen from announcement elsewhere. These are not worn-out machines, but machines that have been used, but are not in first-class condition.

Albert S. Lilly reported to the police yesterday that his little child was struck in the lip with a shot, probably fired from an air rifle. The services of a physician were necessary to extricate the shot.
